WAITING FOR THE BOYS

BY

FRED M. HAWES

CHORUS

Welcome home! Home, sweet home!
Back once more to the good U. S. A.,
And the land of baseball,
Flivers, movie shows and all
The dear Yankee lassies with their most charming way!
Welcome home! Home, sweet home!
To the country where each man is king.
Hip-hurray! 'Twill be some day!
We will yell, and we'll dance and we'll sing.

2. We have paid France the debt that we owed, When they captured St. Mi-hiel they showed That we'll fought, they have won a sure place in the sun, And have made Ger-man-y bend the knee. Oh, they fight if we must, you can't see us for dust, Let the blamed Ho-hen-zol-erns be blow'd. 'Twill be fought to end all ty-rants' reign, In the field, thro' the air, on the main; And we're long ere the boys will em-bark, My, Oh My! That will sure be some lark; And when proud as can be, and im-pa-tient to see Our glo-ri-ous lads once a-gain.

they get a-cross with-out meet-ing one loss We will raise - Oh, may God save the mark.
